

Interruption of SMOS L3C data processing due to SMOS in safe mode

SMOS L3C sea ice thickness processing has been interrupted since 22nd February. The reason is SMOS satellite switched to safe mode. Investigations are still in progress. The processing will be resumed as soon as the situation is normalised.